I had the privilege of working for JQ for a little more than 7 years. From the beginning he demonstrated a wonderful sense of humor. He also had an amazing amount of patience, compassion and trust. Whenever I saw him he had a smile on his face and a warm greeting for everyone he met.

It is because of JQ that I am working here today. Because of him I found a place that I enjoy working at with people that I enjoy working with. I will always be grateful that he gave me the chance to come here.

It was hard to see him as he struggled with cancer and sometimes it was obvious that he was suffering, but I never heard him complain about it. He showed a combination of courage and humor while going through this ultimate struggle for life.

He will be missed by everyone that knew him. No words can adequately describe the sense of loss that all of us feel.
